

Ufford Heritage Trail

14. Avenue Cottage

The present building is reputed to be one of the oldest in Ufford. There is said to have been a house on this site since the 1100s.

The current house is Grade II listed and was built in the C17th or early C18th and is timber framed with colour-washed render and a thatched roof.

Recently, new owners have renamed it Rhubarb Cottage.